

Liability Exclusion

(Hitzel Oberflächentechnik GmbH & CoKG, as editorial officer, shall hereinafter be named as "Author")

Content of the online offer

Author accepts no responsibility for the topicality, validity, completeness or quality of the information provided. Liability claims against Author which are related to material or imaginary damages and which were caused by the use or disuse of presented information or were caused by the use of faulty or incomplete information are fundamentally excluded, inasmuch as no intentional or grossly negligent fault can be proved on behalf of Author. All offers are non-binding and subject to change. It remains at Author's discretion to change, supplement or delete text segments or entire offers without special notice, or to delay or cancel their publication completely.

References and Links

Author is exclusively liable in terms of direct or indirect references to external websites (links), for which the author is not responsible, in the case that Author was aware of the content and that it would have been both technically and reasonably possible for him/her to prevent use in the case of illegal content.

Author therefore expressly declares that the relevant linked websites were free of illegal content at the time the link was put in place. Author has no influence whatsoever on the current and future layout or on the content of the linked pages. He/she therefore expressly distances himself/herself here from all content of all linked pages changed after the link had been put in place. This is valid for all links and references within the own internet offer as well as for external entries in guest books, discussion forums and mailing lists created by Author. The provider of the site which is referenced, and not the provider of the site which merely makes reference to the respective publication by means of links, is solely responsible for illegal, faulty or incomplete content and especially for damages resulting from the use or disuse of presented information.

Copyright and trademark legislation

Author is to endeavor to take note of the copyright of all graphics, sound clips, videos and texts; to use graphics, sound clips, videos and texts of his own, or to resort to unpatented graphics, sound clips, videos and texts. All brand labels and trademarks mentioned within the internet offer, and where relevant trademarked by third parties, are subject without restriction to the terms of the respective valid trademark legislations and the ownership rights of the relevant registered proprietor. It is not to be concluded that trademarks are not protected by third party rights simply because merely the name is mentioned!

Copyright for published objects created by Author remains solely on the side of Author. The reproduction or use of such graphics, sound clips, videos and texts in other electronic or printed publications is not permitted without the express permission of Author.

Legal effect of the liability exclusion

This liability exclusion is to be considered as part of the internet offer and is to be published. Inasmuch as parts or individual formulations of the text do not, no longer or not completely comply with the valid legal status, the content and validity of the remaining parts remain unchanged.
